

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into among the United States of America, acting through the United States Department of Justice and on behalf of the United States Department of the Treasury (collectively, the “United States”), Nan McKay and Associates (“NMA”), and Elevation 33, LLC (“Relator”). Collectively, all of the above will be referred to as “the Parties.”

RECITALS

NMA admits, acknowledges, and accepts responsibility for the facts set forth below, in Paragraphs A through J.

A. NMA, is a company based in El Cajon, California, that provides consulting, operations, and training services for municipal and state governmental agencies engaged in various housing related programs.

B. Guidehouse is a company based in McLean, Virginia, that provides consulting services to public and private entities in management, technology, risk consulting, business process outsourcing, and digital services.

C. In 2021, as part of its COVID-19 relief funding, Congress established two emergency rental assistance programs under the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021 and the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 to provide financial assistance to eligible low-income households to cover the costs of rent, rental arrears, utilities, and other housing-related expenses. Funds from these programs were provided to states, U.S. territories, and certain local and tribal governments. Participating governments were to set up programs to distribute the funding to eligible tenants and landlords.

D. In April 2021, New York State (the “State”) authorized the establishment of its Emergency Rental Assistance Program (“ERAP”). New York State’s Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (“OTDA”) was designated as the state agency responsible for administering the State’s ERAP.

E. Initially, the State anticipated that NMA would be the ERAP prime contractor. Following discussions between NMA and OTDA, Guidehouse was designated as the prime contractor for the ERAP program, with NMA acting as a subcontractor. Accordingly, on May 3, 2021, Guidehouse executed an agreement with OTDA (“ERAP Prime Contract”) under which it would act as the prime contractor with ultimate responsibility for the ERAP program, including for the technology and services provided to the State. NMA, in turn, served as the subcontractor to Guidehouse responsible for delivering and maintaining the technology product used by New York residents to fill out and submit forms requesting financial assistance under the ERAP (“ERAP Application”).

Pre-Go-Live Cybersecurity Testing and the June 1, 2021 “Information Security Breach”

F. The ERAP Prime Contract required Guidehouse to perform certain cybersecurity testing on the ERAP Application, including tests and scans in accordance with industry standard practices. Specifically, the contract and various State information security policies incorporated therein required that certain cybersecurity testing and scanning occur while the ERAP Application was in the “pre-production environments,” meaning prior to the launch of the ERAP Application to the public. Since NMA was the subcontractor responsible for delivering and maintaining the ERAP Application, Guidehouse included those cybersecurity requirements in its subcontract with NMA but expressly retained the right to perform its own application and webserver testing and scanning as appropriate.

G. On or about May 28, 2021, NMA informed Guidehouse that it was having difficulty with one of its cybersecurity testing tools and, thus, it would be unlikely to complete the required pre-production cybersecurity testing of the ERAP Application prior to the ERAP Application's scheduled go-live date. As a result, shortly thereafter, Guidehouse notified NMA that Guidehouse would assume pre-production testing duties and conduct the pre-go-live cybersecurity testing of the ERAP Application. Guidehouse, using a different testing tool, could not get it to timely work either and ultimately, neither Guidehouse nor NMA satisfied their obligation to complete the required pre-production cybersecurity testing.

H. The State's ERAP went live as planned on June 1, 2021, 9:00 a.m. (EST), without Guidehouse or NMA conducting the required pre-go-live cybersecurity testing. Approximately 12 hours after go-live, OTDA notified both Guidehouse and NMA of an incident whereby certain data from the ERAP was appearing on the Internet. Although an investigation conducted by a third party retained by NMA in consultation with Guidehouse determined that no Personally Identifiable Information ("PII") was viewed or used by unauthorized parties, the "Information Security Breach" protocol was triggered under the ERAP Prime Contract because PII was accessed by commercial search engines for a limited group of individuals.

I. Upon discovery of the "Information Security Breach," the ERAP Application was taken off-line overnight while the parties worked to identify program vulnerabilities that may have led to that incident.

J. Had Guidehouse or NMA conducted the contractually-required pre-go-live cybersecurity testing, it is possible that the conditions that allowed for the "Information Security Breach" to have occurred may have been detected and, thus, the incident prevented.

K. The United States contends that it has certain civil claims against NMA for its knowing failure to conduct the requisite pre-go-live cybersecurity testing, in violation of the cybersecurity requirements incorporated in the ERAP Prime Contract, as described in Paragraphs C through J. That conduct is referred to below as the “Covered Conduct.”

L. On March 4, 2022, Elevation 33, LLC filed a qui tam action in the United States District Court for the Northern District of New York captioned United States ex rel. Elevation 33, LLC v. Guidehouse Inc. and Nan McKay and Associates, Inc., Case No. 1:22-cv-206 (N.D.N.Y.), pursuant to the qui tam provisions of the False Claims Act, 31 U.S.C. § 3730(b) (the Civil Action). Concurrent with this Agreement, the United States is intervening in the Civil Action.

M. Relator claims entitlement under 31 U.S.C. § 3730(d) to a share of the proceeds of this Settlement Agreement and to Relator’s reasonable expenses, attorneys’ fees and costs.

N. This Settlement Agreement is neither an admission of liability by NMA nor a concession by the United States that its claims are not well founded.

To avoid the delay, uncertainty, inconvenience, and expense of protracted litigation of the above claims, and in consideration of the mutual promises and obligations of this Settlement Agreement, the Parties agree and covenant as follows:

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Upon final execution of this Settlement Agreement by the parties, NMA shall pay to the United States $3,700,000 (Settlement Amount), of which $1,125,000 is restitution, by electronic funds transfer pursuant to written instructions to be provided by the United States Attorney’s Office for the Northern District of New York. Payment shall be made no later than May 21, 2024.

any liability to Relator arising from the filing of the Civil Action, except for under 31 U.S.C. § 3730(d) for expenses or attorneys' fees and costs.

9. NMA waives and shall not assert any defenses NMA may have to any criminal prosecution or administrative action relating to the Covered Conduct that may be based in whole or in part on a contention that, under the Double Jeopardy Clause in the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution, or under the Excessive Fines Clause in the Eighth Amendment of the Constitution, this Agreement bars a remedy sought in such criminal prosecution or administrative action.

10. NMA fully and finally releases the United States, its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants, from any claims (including attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses of every kind and however denominated) that NMA has asserted, could have asserted, or may assert in the future against the United States, its agencies, officers, agents, employees, and servants, related to the Covered Conduct or the United States' investigation or prosecution thereof.

c. Treatment of Unallowable Costs Previously Submitted for Payment: Within 90 days of the Effective Date of this Agreement, NMA shall identify and repay by adjustment to future claims for payment or otherwise any Unallowable Costs included in payments previously sought by NMA or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates from the United States. NMA agrees that the United States, at a minimum, shall be entitled to recoup from NMA any overpayment plus applicable interest and penalties as a result of the inclusion of such Unallowable Costs on previously-submitted requests for payment. The United States, including the Department of Justice and/or the affected agencies, reserves its rights to audit, examine, or re-examine NMA's books and records and to disagree with any calculations submitted by NMA or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates regarding any Unallowable Costs included in payments previously sought by NMA, or the effect of any such Unallowable Costs on the amount of such payments.

13. This Agreement is intended to be for the benefit of the Parties only.

14. Upon receipt of the payment described in Paragraph 1, above, the Parties shall promptly sign and file in the Civil Action a Joint Stipulation of Dismissal of claims against NMA in the Civil Action pursuant to Rule 41(a)(1). The Joint Stipulation shall be (i) with prejudice as to the United States' and the Relator's claims as to the Covered Conduct, and (ii) without prejudice as to the United States and with prejudice as to the Relator as to all other allegations against NMA set forth in the Civil Action, except with respect to Relator's claim against Defendants for reasonable expenses necessarily incurred and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 3730(d), which shall not be dismissed and shall remain pending.
